Highway, Hauppauge, NY 11788

On Workers' Memorial Day, workers across our Nation pause to remember those who have died as a result of a workplace injury or illness. Over the last few years, Long Island's workers, as in many other years, failed to escape the tragedy of death as a result of performing their jobs. These workers and their grieving families must not be forgotten. Please join the Long Island Workers' Memorial Day Committee in honoring these workers at a service dedicated to their memory.
